Leaving a Gift to FGC through your Will

The simple bequest language here is for illustrative purposes only. You should always consult with your professional advisor when making or revising your will.

Specific dollar bequest

I give to Friends General Conference, located in Philadelphia, PA, Tax ID 23-1352148, the sum of $ _____, for its general purposes.

Residuary bequest

"Residue" refers to the portion of your estate that remains after all debts, expenses and specific bequests to others have first been fulfilled.

All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate for federal tax purposes I give to Friends General Conference, located in Philadelphia, PA, Tax ID 23-1352148, for its general purposes.

Donation of real estate bequest

For gifts of fixed property, principally land and buildings

I leave to Friends General Conference, of Philadelphia, PA, the real property described as follows: [property address and description]

I direct my Executor/Personal Representative to sell the above-described real property and distribute the proceeds to Friends General Conference, located in Philadelphia, PA, Tax ID 23-1352148, for its general purposes.

Restricted or Unrestricted?

FGC prefers unrestricted bequests. This allows us the flexibility to best address the changing needs within the Religious Society of Friends. If you are considering a restricted gift, please contact Traci Hjelt Sullivan, Associate Secretary for Development, tracis@fgcquaker.org, 215-561-1700, ext. 3004, before finalizing your plans.
