Evening Programs

Lisa Graustein - Sacred Vessels - Quaker Practices for Holding Us All

8:00pm - 9:30pm Eastern

Lisa Graustein is a founding host of Three Rivers Meeting, in New England Yearly Meeting. Lisa's current call to ministry among Friends is centered on noticing, interrupting, and transforming patterns of oppression as we enact them so that we can build a more faithful, inclusive, and just Religious Society.

Friends are welcome to linger for this Q & A period.

Welcome Session for First Time Attenders

Open Hang Out rooms scheduled throughout the day will provide registrants a way to meet up with new and old Friends. When you join the Open Hang Out space, a Zoom Host will be present to give Friends a choice of breakout rooms to join or make new breakout rooms. See the Open Hang Out Announcement Board for pre-scheduled breakout room topics (you could request one). You can join the Open Hang Out Space zoom meeting at any point while it's open.

Worship sharing groups of six to eight people will meet each day to reflect on queries. This is the drop-in group - you will be with a different group of Friends each day.
