Nontheist Friends - Who, What, Why, and Where with John Hunter

Monday June 29, 4pm EDT

Nontheism is one of the many forms of diversity among Friends and is even widely varied under that rubric. Who are nontheist Friends and how do they navigate within their meetings and fit into the fabric of Quakerism? Presentation and Q&A/discussion

Varieties of non-theism among Friends with Don Goldstein

Wednesday July 1 4pm EDT

Non-theistic Friends have a variety of beliefs about the nature of the universe and the source of our moral and ethical obligations. We will explore that variety by sharing our own beliefs and spiritual journeys.

How do we go on after our loved ones die? with Margaret Conrow

Thursday July 2 4pm EDT

Sharing our experiences in a Claremont Dialogue setting.

How Theological Diversity Among Friends Strengthens Quakerism with John Hunter

Friday July 3, 4pm EDT

The presence of theological diversity within our meetings is a sign of strength, leading to stronger local meetings and a more durable Religious Society of Friends. Such diversity allows us to be more effective in our wider society in these divided times. Presentation and general discussion.
