SPIRITUAL DEEPENING GROUPS(S) FORMING
In the fall of 2014 Mary Karp, Shawn Gutshall, Keith Bridges, Dorothy Duncan, and Barbara Babin formed a Spiritual Deepening Group. The members of the group would like to start the group up again and invite new participants to join. If there are too many for one group, we may divide into more than one. There will be an organizational meeting for everyone interested in early September. If Friends House folks are interested, please talk with Dorothy Duncan. Participants will draw on experiences and practices that they have had or heard about, and the group will decide on its structure and frequency of meetings. There is likely to be a Spiritual Friendship component for those who choose. The only "rules" are: 1) maintain confidentiality, and 2) treat yourself and others with kindness.

ADVICES AND QUERIES
From Pacific Yearly Meeting’s
Faith and Practice

On Social and Civic Responsibility

In the words of William Penn, “True godliness don’t draw men out of the world, but enables them to live better in it and excites their endeavors to mend it.” Elsewhere he commented: “It is a reproach to religion and government to suffer so much poverty and excess.

Poverty within a wealthy society is unjust, cruel, and often linked to skin color, gender, and language. We must examine our own privilege and role in the economic order that deepens this disparity. Friends should be alert to oppression and injustice, and persistent in working against them.

We value our part in shaping the laws of our country. Our task is to see that laws serve God’s purposes and build a just social order. Our first allegiance should be to God, and if this conflicts with any compulsion of the state, we serve our country best by remaining true to our higher loyalty.

If, by divine leading, our attention is focused on a law that is contrary to God’s law, we must proceed with care. Before acting, Friends should pray for further guidance and speak with the Meeting, family members, and all those who might be affected by the decision. If a decision involves disobedience to the law, we should make the grounds of our action clear to all concerned and be prepared to suffer any penalties without evasion. As a community, we must care for those who suffer for conscience’s sake.

What am I doing to carry my share of responsibility for the government of our community, nation, and world?
Am I persistent in my efforts to promote constructive change?

How do we attend to the suffering of others in our local community, in our state and nation, and in the world community?

Do we try to understand the causes of suffering, and do we address them as a Meeting?

How do we, individually and as a Meeting, support the organizations that work to bring the testimonies of Friends into reality in our society?

Minutes FOR JUNE 2015
MEETING FOR WORSHIP
ON THE OCCASION OF BUSINESS

Presiding Clerk, Susan Swanstrom, opened worship at 12 noon. The Clerk read the Advices and Queries for 6th Month: "On Harmony with Nature" In pairs, we considered: "In what ways do I express gratitude for the wondrous expressions of life on Earth?" The Clerk read a quote from George Fox and introduced Clarke Dixon-Moses as Recording Clerk.

Minute 2015: 6.1: The Meeting approved the minutes with the following correction: In Minute 2015: 5.1, change “7/1/15-6/30/15 Budget” to “7/1/15-6/30/16 Budget”.

Worship and Ministry Committee (Margaret Sorrel)

1. The committee is delighted that Nate Secrest feels led to serve as clerk and unites with this leading.
2. We are aware of having too large a committee mandate for the number of people serving on our committee and are hopeful that Nominating Committee will succeed in finding others led to serve with us. We will do the best we can with limited resources.
3. If you are led to provide pre meeting offerings or post meeting offerings on an ongoing schedule or as a one-time event, please contact W&M.
4. Friends continue to express frustration with the time we call Announcements. We are seasoning whether we might change the pattern of how this is done or work harder to get Friends to follow the guidelines that have been set up.
5. We are looking for ways to revitalize our Children’s program.
6. The committee lacks unity on the role of silent worshipper for Meeting for Business. Some like it and have found it grounding to our Meeting. Others feel that holding the Meeting in a spirit of worship is a collective responsibility that is best shared by all who are in attendance. There is also the concern that the individual serving is taken away from an active place in the discernment of the Meeting. We have the support of the Clerk of Meeting to continue to season this concern over several months. Please let us know your personal experience of holding the Meeting in a spirit of worship.

Nominating Committee (Keith Bridges)

1) Nate Secrest as Clerk of W&M. Presiding Clerk suggested that such a nomination does require the approval of the Business Meeting, and proposed that M4B act favorably on this matter, since we have heard favorable reports from both Nominating and W&M.

Minute 2015: 6.2: Meeting approved Nate Secrest as Worship and Ministry Clerk, effective immediately.

2) Dan Beck for Property Committee to serve from 9/1/15-4/30/17. Accordingly, Dan would go off Nominating Committee as of 9/1/2015. This nomination will be held over for seasoning until our next Business Meeting.

Peace and Social Witness Committee (Paul Robbins)

1) On May 21, 2015 the Leadership Council of the North Bay Organizing Project (NBOP) developed the following proposal for dues in 2016. They propose that each organization discusses this structure with their own membership in order to vote on this structure in June. Dues structure proposals for 2016: two choices were discussed:
   Option A: 1% of budget
   OR
   Option B:
   - Student and very small organizations: $600
   - Small organizations: $1,500
   - Medium organizations: $2,500
   - Large organizations: $5,000
   Proposal:
   - Very small organizations under 50 members
   - Small organizations 51-99 members.
   - Medium organizations 100-299 members.
   - Large organizations 300-999 members.
   - Very large organizations over 1,000 members

For reference:
- Dues structure for 2015
- Student Organizations: $500
- Small Organizations: $600-$1000
- Medium Organizations: $1,200-$2,000
- Large Organizations: $2,500-$4,000

Peace and Social Witness Committee is in unity in recommending that the Meeting direct its two representatives to the Leadership Council to advocate and vote for Option A. Peace and Social Witness also recommends the representatives to the Leadership Council remind NBOP that Meeting is committed to working on local issues with NBOP and that Friends have their own organizations to influence national and state politics. In addition, Peace and Social Witness recommends NBOP be encouraged to recruit more organizations to the organizing project.

Minute 2015: 6.3: “Meeting directs its two representatives to the Leadership Council to advocate and vote for Option A, with dues being 1% of our budget. Since our budget is approximately $60,000, our dues under Option A would be approximately $600. At last month’s Meeting for Business, Meeting determined to pay $800 in dues for 2016. Peace and Social Witness recommends and Meeting approves continuing paying that amount for 2016.”
In Tenth Month 2015 Redwood Forest Meeting authorized representatives to speak to the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors and other elected and administrative officials in support of the campaign for a living wage of $15 per hour for all county employees, contractors, non-profit organizations providing services to the county.

This month Friends met with Supervisor James Gore and Supervisor Shirley Zane to encourage their support for the vote this month on the issue of the living wage. Both supervisors joined the majority in tentatively approving the living wage for all but the 4,900 in-home caregivers. The final vote is scheduled for the 23rd day of this month, and Friends may be asked to attend the meeting of the Board of Supervisors to encourage their final vote in favor of the living wage.

In addition, Friends will also be asked to join in the work of extending the living wage to the 4,900 in-home caregivers, who currently receive only $11.65 per hour. Friends are united in this work with Jobs with Justice, one of the Meeting’s sister organizations in the North Bay Organizing Project.

Oversight Committee (Ruth Witchey)

- Oversight disbursed money from our Scholarship Fund to provide assistance for three individuals wishing to attend PYM.
- Eric Straatsma’s clearness committee report for membership was read. (Attached.) We will season until next Meeting for Business.
- André Lebel’s clearness committee report was read. (Attached.) This committee and Oversight are in unity with recommending membership for André Lebel. We will season until August 15 Meeting for Business. Members are encouraged to get to know Eric and André better.
- Rick Hargreaves’ Memorial Minute, attached, was solemnly read by David Beckman. Rick died on 4/17/15 in a boating accident. We are lucky to have had Rick among us, and will deeply miss him.
- Reminder: Because PYM occurs in July this year, we will have no Meeting for Business in July. Next Meeting for Business will be in August, Second Sunday. Newsletter for both months will be combined into one issue, published for July; potluck (3rd Sunday) and snacks will continue for July as usual. It was decided that each committee of the Meeting will make its own decision about whether to hold a July committee Meeting, on 7/5. Clerk shall instruct Newsletter to announce these decisions in July/Aug Newsletter.

Correspondence/Announcements (Susan Swanstrom)

PYM: Registration still open (but it is late as of June 8th and requires a 5% penalty). Daily Schedule is available now both on PYM website and on the bulletin board in the Residence. There is no charge to attend the Meeting for Memorials Thursday 7/16 from 3:15-5:30 pm.

Jane Mackie has officially transferred her membership to Lehigh Meeting in PA. Lehigh has approved her Transfer. This information will be given to our Archivist to file.

We have 5 transfers TO RFFM in the works: Chula and Hubert Morel-Seytoux were released from Palo Alto in February and Oversight is setting up two separate visitations, Clarke Dixon-Moses has been released from Santa Cruz Meeting and his transfer was sent to Oversight for action in May, and Denis Thalson, on 5/20/2015 was released from membership and approved for transfer to RFFM by Berkeley Meeting. His paperwork will also go to Oversight to set up a visiting committee. Elizabeth Boardman’s request for Transfer of Membership is pending, but no action has been taken as of yet from San Francisco Meeting.

Thanks were received for our donations to various organizations: from FCLCA ($500), FWCC ($500), Friends Journal ($300), and Progresa ($300) with a note of additional thanks for our valiant volunteer efforts from RFFM members.

Joys/Concerns

~Concern regarding Amy Yamauchi’s request during announcements that an early Headstart classroom be moved to our children’s building. Referred for seasoning to both Property committee and Finance re: tenancy and insurance concerns. A called Meeting for Business could be a way to move this forward if seasoned in July.

A request has been made to Headstart for an appropriate draft agreement which would be signed by both parties before tenancy. A comment was made that there may be gains from sharing our property.

~Concern mentioned by Worship and Ministry in their report regarding announcements was countered by two Friends appreciating announcements for their warmth, usefulness and community building functions.

~A Friend spoke of her concern that we seldom hear an announcement regarding Amy Yamauchi’s request during announcements that an early Headstart classroom be moved to our children’s building. Referred for seasoning to both Property committee and Finance re: tenancy and insurance concerns. A called Meeting for Business could be a way to move this forward if seasoned in July.

~A Friend spoke of her concern that we seldom hear any reports from our official Reps to Friends’ organizations, and wondered if it would be helpful to explicitly invite them to do this.

~The former Oversight co-clerk expressed gratitude for all the good work done by Oversight, much of it behind the scenes. He is glad to see they are getting along so well without him!

~A Friend spoke of her moving experience of presenting to Meeting re: the Year-end Retreat she attended at Ben Lomond. She found the Meeting audience to be very warm and engaging, and her connection with the Meeting was strengthened.

Closing Worship concluded at 1:45 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan Swanstrom, Clerk
Clarke Dixon-Moses, Recording Clerk
Memorial Minute for Rick Hargreaves of Redwood Forest Friends Meeting

Richard Edward Hargreaves Jr. was born on June 5, 1955 to Richard Edward Hargreaves Sr. and Shirley Jeanne (Balch) Hargreaves in San Pablo, CA. Rick had three younger sisters. When he was six years old, his parent divorced and Rick and his sisters lived with their mother most of the time. When Rick was 14, the family moved to Fort Bragg, CA where Rick graduated from high school in 1973 and was a High School All American Football Player. Rick got a scholarship to play football at West Hills College in Coalinga, CA. There he met and married Debbi Conley.

In 1977 Rick and his family moved to Ukiah, CA where he worked as a lumber grader at Louisiana Pacific, and they welcomed their daughter, Jennifer Hargreaves, in 1979. Rick went back to school, graduating from Sonoma State University in 1992 with a BA in History and then got his credentialing through Dominican College in 1993. Rick started teaching in the Junior High program at the local Christian school the same year. Later in 1993 Rick and Debbi divorced.

After leaving the Christian school, he taught in a residential youth facility in Ukiah, which led him to his passion helping kids in the Juvenile Detention system. Rick became a valued mentor, assisting his students to achieve their many goals.

Rick lived in Lake County for several years while teaching at multiple local high schools. He married Diane McMillian in 1996. In 2000 Rick's daughter Jennifer gave birth to Rick's grandson, Preston Cordova, and, in 2002, to Rick's granddaughter, Sheridan Cordova. In 2008, Rick and Diane were divorced and shortly after he moved to Santa Rosa, CA.

Rick worked for the Sonoma County Office of Education for 19 years. At the time of his death he was a teacher at Amarosa Academy, where he was affectionately known as "Coach," and was involved in both the teen parents and culinary arts programs.

In 2008 Rick met Karen Morgan through their work for their local teachers union. Influenced by her, he began attending Redwood Forest Friends Meeting and gradually embraced Quaker theology. He was warmly welcomed into membership of the Meeting in December 2014. He was on the Property Committee, a regular attender at Quarterly Meetings and also served on the Ben Lomond Quaker Center Board.

Rick was an avid golfer and fisherman. As a New York Yankees fan he would drive to Oakland every time the team played. Camping, boating, scuba diving, and traveling were some of his other favorite activities. He also enjoyed music and theater. He loved spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren, Preston & Sheridan. Rick often traveled to see Preston play soccer and football, and he cheered for Sheridan at each one of her dance recitals.

Rick died on April 17th, 2015 in a boating accident. He is survived by his partner, Karen Morgan, his parents, Richard Hargreaves Sr. and Jeanne Sutherland, his daughter and son-in-law, Jennifer & Eric Cordova and their children, Preston & Sheridan Cordova, as well as his three sisters, Sharon Miller (Jeff), Donna Murray and Michelle Kingsley (Darlis) and many nieces and nephews.

We will sorely miss Rick's vital presence and warm demeanor at Redwood Forest Friends Meeting.

Report of Clearness Committee on Membership for Eric Straatsma

Eric Straatsma comes to Friends after long and earnest searching for a spiritual home.

Eric was raised as a fundamentalist Christian on his father's side, but good vs. bad, black vs. white polarities were too limiting and he experienced a sense that something was missing. His mother's more open sense of being on a spiritual journey appealed to him, and at age 14, when Eric's parents divorced, he moved with his mother to live briefly outside of Mexico City. This is where he encountered his first spiritual challenge in the guise of his classical guitar teacher who repeatedly asked him the seminal question: Who are you? Never allowing physical or superficial answers, he encouraged Eric to go explore inside.
At eighteen, his family moved to Fairbanks, Alaska, and his spiritual search started in earnest. He explored a range of systems from Eastern religions such as Kundalini and Pranayama Yoga, to being saved as a Christian several times. He joined the Church of Religious Science and settled in Yuba City, CA where he worshipped with the Spiritual Living Center there. He joined the leadership team, started an interfaith group and helped the church grow. He discovered, in opposition to his early learning, that atheists can experience spiritual depth and he is particularly interested in the metaphysical, and universal dimension of every church he has visited. He is more interested in what unites spiritual traditions than what keeps them apart.

When he moved to Santa Rosa, he visited the Spiritual Living Center here, but did not feel at home. He then researched Quakers on the web and was deeply moved by our structure in which everyone takes part in the life of the Meeting, and there are no paid leaders.

As he has spent more time with us (almost three years so far), he has read more deeply in Quaker writings, and experienced our meetings and has found nothing in the way of his continued involvement, such as contradictions between our stated values and our practice.

Eric has questioned whether Quakerism’s Christian roots would be too narrow for him, since his own focus is more Universalist and metaphysical. But he is finding that many among us are quite comfortable with a Universalist approach to spirituality and the respect for each person’s experience appeals to him.

We had good discussions on the Testimonies, Meeting for Business, the discernment process, the role of Clearness Committees, and the experience of being called for vocal ministry. His own experience of feeling a nudge to speak in a way that speaks go away, has led him to ministry in the form of asking questions.

When we asked him why he wanted to become a Quaker, Eric told us that he feels that he has been led to our community. He is approaching membership in Redwood Forest Friends with surrender and openness and he trusts the Spirit to lead him. Asking Not my will but Thy will be done has led him to this step. When we asked him what he saw as the difference between being an attender and being a member, he said The difference is in depth.”

We asked Eric to learn more about our committees and the workings of our Meetings for Business. He took the time to join Peace and Social Witness and attend some Meetings for Business, all in good humor and with an interest in learning more.

We believe that Eric shows the willingness to join us in worship and continue learning and growing in Redwood Forest Friends Meeting. His enthusiasm for a Beloved Community, and his willingness to work to make it a reality leads us to the recommendation that he is ready for membership. Oversight committee is in unity with this recommendation.

Report of Clearness Committee on Membership for André Lebel

The Committee, consisting of Paul Harris, Susan Swanstrom and David Beckman (convener) met with André at the Meeting Library on Friday evening, May 8, 2015, at 7:00 PM.

After a few moments of silent worship, André spoke of his spiritual journey. André was born and raised as a Roman Catholic. At age seven, while sitting peacefully in the woods near his home in New Hampshire, he got a strong sense of what God was, and why he, André, was here -- which was to love. Later he expanded this awareness to understand that he was here to receive love as well.

André liked the mystical aspects of Catholic worship, but not the dogma and the definitions of sin. His mother was a devout but not fanatical Catholic. As a family they prayed the rosary, and Catholicism was very much part of the family’s French Canadian culture.

While attending The University of Vermont he was active in the Newman Center and took part in folk masses and retreats. During that time he met Fathers Daniel and Phillip Berrigan and marched with them and other participants against the Viet Nam War.

Then, in 1972, André was faced with being drafted. He sought out a draft counselor on campus who turned out to be a Quaker. That Friend helped André know what questions he would likely be asked by the draft board. His primary belief was that war and taking another person’s life was contrary to his spiritual upbringing and beliefs. He was granted the Conscientious Objector status and did alternative service in a hospital.

Also, at this time, he was sampling services at other Christian churches. But he couldn’t reconcile their preaching against gay and lesbian sexual orientation, women’s rights and contraception.

André took part in services of other spiritual groups, including attending Jewish synagogue, Native American nature religion, Church of Religious Science, etc., but nothing seemed to fit.

In December of 2013 André met a member of Redwood Forest Friends Meeting and they talked about Quakerism. He was invited to the after-meeting potluck and witnessed how Quakers welcomed a same-sex couple that had recently married. He began attending Redwood Forest Friends Meeting. In the following year he felt three profound leadings to speak in Meeting.

André took Quakerism 101 and read Howard Brinton’s Friends for 350 Years. He studied George Fox and John Woolman to deepen his knowledge of Quakerism, and purchased and read Faith and Practice. He has attended Quarterly Meetings as well as Pacific Yearly Meeting. He took part in "Quakers: Getting Beyond the What to the Why" lead by Robert Griswold at Ben Lomond Quicker Center.

On two occasions he has acted as Resident Friend while the current Resident took time off. André has been thinking about applying for membership in Redwood Forest Friends Meeting since August of 2014. Of all our testimonies, that of connecting directly with the Spirit is perhaps the most important to him. He likes how we conduct business at Meeting for Worship on the Occasion of Business, the Unity process and how Quakers live their lives.

André sees no roadblocks preventing him from joining the Religious Society of Friends, or our meeting. As a member, he hopes to have further revelations and expects Quakerism to be an extension of his life. He has given some thought to how he might serve the Meeting, and would like to be on Worship and Ministry Committee, or perhaps Oversight. His strengths are open-mindedness and a deep connection to Spirit. He also has many practical skills that might be useful to the meeting.

What means the most to André is that he feels at home with the Religious Society of Friends and meetings he has attended. He feels especially at home with Redwood Forest Friends Meeting.

This clearness committee is in unity in recommending André Lebel for Membership in the Redwood Forest Friends Meeting and in the Religious Society of Friends. Oversight is in unity with this recommendation.
