Early Bird Discount by March 31
(postmarked)

We welcome Caln Quarter Friends to our tradition of fellowship, learning, worship and enjoying the pristine natural setting of Camp Swatara near Bethel, PA. Caln Quarter has held these spring residential retreats for decades at this camp located at the foot of Blue Mountain and bounded by the Appalachian Trail.

For those who are returning, welcome back. For those coming for the first time, imagine a weekend with people eager to listen, learn and connect with Friends. Meetings for Worship are large, yet personal. Workshops and general sessions expose us to ideas from the wider Quaker community. There are many Quakers in Caln Quarter who share common understandings and insights into Quaker history, and some with modern leadings.

This year's theme is Obstacles and Opportunities: Quakers' Past Lessons Illuminating the Way Forward. Adrian Martinez, our plenary speaker, is a renowned Chester County Quaker artist who captured Penn and Native Americans in one extensive painting project. He will share images from his recent, five-year effort painting Humphry Marshall's Quaker story. He will discuss the obstacles encountered by Marshall and lessons gleaned from those for Quakers.

The weekend offers a variety of workshops and activities designed for all ages, beginning with a campfire and singing Friday evening. This year we have 7 workshops exploring topics from Quakers, past, present, and future. There will be an ongoing art show (All are invited to bring their art work!) and an opportunity to discuss the art with Friends at a Saturday after-dinner coffehouse. Yoga will be offered in the mornings, and Saturday evening will bring our popular Inter-generational Talent Show followed by music (TBA).

Beyond these offerings, there are a variety of programs for children and young adults. Middle School and Young Friends' programs are coordinated by the Yearly Meeting staff and open to all PYM youth. Young Adult Friends (ages 18 to 35ish) who wish to share a cabin can indicate their preference on the registration form.

Friends will gather for Meeting for Worship followed by the Caln Quarter's Meeting for Worship with attention to Business on Saturday and will also have the opportunity to worship as a gathered community on First Day.

Lodging is available in cabins, heated lodges, and a motel-type lodge. Four bunk-style lodges have bathroom and shower facilities; we will offer same-sex cabins, if requested. Meals are buffet style with a vegetarian option at each meal. Join us for this delightful weekend with our Quaker community. Relax, learn, play, and chat with Friends of all ages, and leave with great memories.

PLENARY SESSION Adrian Martinez:

The Visionary World of Humphry Marshall: Quakers’ past lessons illuminating the way forward

Internationally recognized in the 18th century for his botanical studies, Humphry Marshall was a Quaker, keen businessman and prominent community activist. Living a life in the context of a frontier Quaker community Marshall negotiated as best he could issues all too familiar today: race, gender, poverty, international conflict and terrorism. Staunchly pacifist during the Revolutionary War, Marshall suffered at the hands of both British and American troops. Owning at least one slave and numbers of indentured (temporary slaves) servants Humphry Marshall worked until the end of his life on behalf of Native Americans. Adrian Martinez will speak to his five-year journey researching and creating a cycle of paintings depicting this remarkable Quaker’s life and times. “The Visionary World of Humphry Marshall 1750-1800” a major exhibit at the Chester County Historical Society was on display throughout 2017. To explore Adrian Martinez’s work please go to www.fqaquaker.org

WORKSHOPS The final schedule is subject to change and will be available at Camp Swatara.

Session A Saturday afternoon.

Session B Sunday morning.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON 3:00 – 4:15

1A Quakers and Immigration

Carol Anne Donohoe (Reading Monthly Meeting)

Between the building of a wall, the Muslim travel ban, the fight over a permanent fix for DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals), and the daily news reports of noncriminals getting deported, the issue of immigration is in the national spotlight. As an immigration attorney, I will present on how current and past government policies impact those seeking a better life in the United States, which will include my experiences representing detained asylum-seeking families at the Berks County Residential Center. I will explain our convoluted immigration laws and suggest ways in which Quakers, in keeping with their history of being on the right side of human rights abuses, can help advocate for the undocumented.

2A Activism: Where does it come from and where will it take us?

Jennifer Hanf (Reading Monthly Meeting)

Quaker roots are founded in activism and search for justice, human rights, and peace. Peaceful activism is intertwined with divine purpose, with morality, and anchored in our belief in the Inner Light. The workshop will look at key events, which have historically led Quakers to activism and examine how we, as Quakers, continue to be led to activism today.

This workshop will begin with a brief look at Quaker responses to injustices historically. The workshop will then discuss present day concerns and Quaker responses to human rights, conflict resolution, and environmental and political issues. Participants will be encouraged to share personal experiences and participate in an open dialogue and discussion.

3A Nature Discovery: Exploration & Observation

Judy Ballinger, lead facilitator (Reading Monthly Meeting)

Roger Lawn & Tom Hughes, hike leaders (Reading Monthly Meeting)

In the spirit of Humphrey Marshall and the early Quakers of Pennsylvania, we will go out into the woods to be amazed by our natural surroundings. To learn from nature, we will each find some natural object to observe back in the studio. Like the 18th century Quaker botanists, we will use a variety of art and scientific approaches to examine these natural items, and perhaps produce images on paper to show. (Unlike the early Quakers, a digital option may also be available). This will be an intergenerational activity, to include children as well as adults.

4A The Parables of Jesus

Alex Miller & Irene Oleksiw (Downingtown Monthly Meeting)

The Parables of Jesus hold great wisdom that is as applicable to our lives today as it was 2,000 years ago.

The parables extend valuable spiritual lessons, perhaps the best lessons to guide Friends to the Light in finding ways and opportunities in the future. No prior knowledge of the Bible is required

SUNDAY Morning 9:45 – 10:45

1B Quakers Past Lessons Illuminating our Future

Adrian Martinez

Adrian Martinez, artist, civic activist, and visionary will share his insights connecting Quaker past, present and future. Incredible technological changes are coming to our society—for example, in transportation and water systems. It is amazing how little awareness there is of the consequences of our choices, even within the government. One thing is clear, however, change will be much faster and more universal than many realize. Using Quaker principles, Adrian will challenge us to discern how our present choices will impact the future. The workshop will be an interactive discussion.

2B Bless You/Bless Me

Charlie Gilbert (Reading Monthly Meeting)

This workshop looks at the importance of and confusion about blessings in our lives. What exactly are blessings anyway? Are there big and little blessings? How do we give and receive blessings? We frequently fail to recognize blessings both in ourselves and in events and others that we meet in our daily lives. As a species on this earth we are the beneficiaries of a legacy of blessings; simultaneously the providers of blessings to ourselves, our families and all of mankind, now and in the future. One might consider that giving blessings is a developmental task for humans and our ability to advance or evolve on this earth is dependent on it. It is easy to see only our shadow and the shadows of mankind. Let's explore and share the ways blessings have added meaning, effectiveness and accomplishment to our lives.

3B Exploring Conversation Through Composition

Thomas Dareneau (Reading Monthly Meeting)

Using the medium of charcoal, participants will be led through the process of creating an abstract composition. Throughout the process we will be discussing the parallels of proper use of the elements of design and conflict resolution.

Middle School Friends (grades 6-8) and Young Friends (grades 9-12)

DESCRIPTION: The Camp Swatara Middle School and Young Friends programs are open to youth from the whole Yearly Meeting. Camp Swatara is a rustic camp on 600 acres of wooded hillside at the base of the Appalachian Trail. This gathering is part of the Caln Quarterly Meeting family weekend in which PYM Middle School Friends and Young Friends have their own cabins and programs. The two programs are separate most of the weekend, though they spend some time together and many elements of the programs are similar. Both programs will open with group games and get to know you activities on Friday night. Both programs will have space for workshops, worship sharing, and plenty of fun with friends throughout the weekend. Everyone will have the opportunity to hike the rock pile and part of the Appalachian Trail (though there will be an alternate activity for those who do not want to hike). MSF and YF participants will also join the intergenerational talent show on Saturday night. On Sunday morning both MSF and YF programs will join together for a bridging ceremony, in which current 8th graders will be welcomed into the PYM Young Friends program and 12th graders will be welcomed by Young Adult Friends.

EXPECTATIONS: All MSFs and YFs who register for this gathering are expected to participate in the set program. We encourage participants to find ways to attend the entire gathering, as building a real community is much more possible when everyone is there the whole time. Parents should inform the PYM Youth Engagement Coordinator on the registration form (in addition to emailing separately if desired) if for some reason their child will not be participating in any part of the program. Young people should expect to be supervised at all times. Further guidelines for each program will be explained Friday night.

REGISTRATION & COST: Young Friends and Middle School Friends register online at <https://secure.acceptiva.com/?cst=e1d187>. You MUST register by April 20th. If you have missed the deadline, contact the Program Coordinator to get on a waitlist in case of cancellations. NO WALK-INS PERMITTED. Register for the early bird rate of $116 by March 31! On April 1st the cost becomes $128. Full and partial financial aid is available for Middle School Friends and Young Friends via the online registration.

TRANSPORTATION: We strongly encourage everyone to arrive on Friday night. A carpool list and more detailed information about the event will go out to all youth registrants by email about 10 days before the gathering. If parents are driving and have room for other riders it would be an act of kindness for you to call other YFs and MSFs from the carpool list and invite them to ride with you!

ARRIVAL & DEPARTURE: Arrive between 6 and 7 PM on Friday night. The program will begin at 7:30. Eat dinner before you come – We'll have snacks later, but no dinner will be served. The gathering ends after lunch at 1:00 PM on Sunday.

PACKING & ACCOMMODATIONS: Camp Swatara provides bunk beds with foam mattresses in uninsulated (read: cold at night) cabins, so bring a warm sleeping bag or sheets and warm blankets plus a pillow. Cabins are divided by gender. If a program participant in Young Friends needs a non-gendered cabin, contact Kody Hersh, YoungFriends@pym.org to make that request. A Friendly Adult Presence (chaperone) will be present in each cabin and a staff person will stay up to ensure sleep. There is a men's and women's bathhouse (no gender neutral, email your Program Facilitator if this is a concern) with showers near the YF and MSF cabins, so bring a towel and your regular toiletries, plus a flashlight for any necessary night trips to the bathhouse. Bring pajamas in which you will be comfortable being seen and others will be comfortable seeing you. Don't forget a daypack, sturdy shoes and water bottle for the hike! Rain gear and musical instruments are also encouraged. Additionally, if you haven't been to a Young Friends or Middle School Friends event yet this academic year (or ever), you'll need to bring forms with you – both Programs require a medical form and the Young Friends Program additionally requires the Guidelines Affirmation Form. These forms are available at www.pym.org/young-friends/events/young-friends-forms/
