

How users can set up their own new account on the Quaker Cloud:

1. Begin by clicking Request Access on the homepage. This is showing you have to join a meeting page called “Quaker Cloud Admins”.

The screenshot shows the homepage for the "Quaker Cloud Admins" group. At the top right is a "Log in" link. Below the title "Quaker Cloud Admins" is the text "Member or attender of this meeting?". A dark blue navigation bar contains links for "Home", "News", "Events", "Resources", and "Community", along with a search box labeled "Search this group". The main content area features a paragraph: "This is a site for the community of admins for the Quaker Cloud to get help, support, and access resources. If you would like to become a member and gain access to this information, please email emailcloudsupport@quakercloud.org". To the right, under "Worship with us!", there is a phone icon and the number "215.561.1700 x3055". Below that, under "Members & Attenders", are two buttons: "Request Access" and "Contact Us". A purple callout box with a white background and a purple border points to the "Request Access" button, containing the text: "Interested members can choose Request Access to get started."

2. You will be taken to a page welcoming you to join the Group. Click Request to Join this Group.

A dark blue navigation bar contains links for "Home", "News", "Events", "Resources", and "Community", along with a search box labeled "Search this group". The main content area features a heading "Join Quaker Cloud Admins" and a "Hello!" greeting. Below that is a paragraph: "This part of our website is built to support and encourage the community we're building in-person through worship, fellowship and social witness. We are excited to welcome you into that community, but we have found that those relationships start best in person. So, if you are already a member or attender, click the link below and fill out the form below to send a note to the Quaker Cloud administrator for your meeting. Be sure to let them know your name and your connection to the meeting. If you haven't had the chance to meet in person, please introduce yourself. We look forward to getting to know you! Click the back button and look in the sidebar for more information, our address and worship times." At the bottom left, there is a link "Request to Join this Group" and a "Click Here!" button. A purple callout box with a white background and a purple border points to the "Request to Join this Group" link.

4. Create One Now will take you to an FGC page. You will actually be setting up an account that will live in the FGC database. Your account will only be visible to your meeting's admins and the Quaker Cloud staff at FGC unless you specifically opt in to receive other information about FGC.
5. After you have created your account, your meeting admin will be notified that you are interested in accessing your meeting's Quaker Cloud account. The admin will have to approve your request before you will be able to access your account.
