ABOUT THE PERFORMERS

EMMA'S REVOLUTION is the award-winning activist duo of Pat Humphries & Sandy O, whose songs have been sung for the Dalai Lama, praised by Pete Seeger and covered by Holly Near. Emma's Revolution delivers the energy and strength of their convictions, in an uprising of truth and hope for these tumultuous times. Pat was singing to Pete in his hospital room as he passed away in 2014. The duo's latest CD, Revolution Now, includes "Sing People Sing", their song that captures Pete's unique ability to empower an audience with harmony and hope.

CHARLIE KING is a musical storyteller, political satirist, and activist. Pete Seeger hailed him as "one of the finest singers and songwriters of our time." They worked together to help build the People's Music Network. He is recipient of the Phil Ochs Award, the War Resisters League's Peacemaker Award, the Sacco-Vanzetti Social Justice Award (nominated by Pete Seeger), and the Joe Hill Award. His songs have been recorded and sung by Pete & Peggy Seeger, Holly Near, Ronnie Gilbert, John McCutcheon, and Arlo Guthrie. Peggy Seeger says, "If we had more Charlie Kings in the world, I'd be less worried."

ANNIE PATTERSON & PETER BLOOD are the co-creators of the best-selling singalong songbook Rise Up Singing, which Studs Terkel called a "play-work-fight-freedom hymnal." They have led singalong concerts across North America and abroad building "hope & change through song." Patterson is well-loved for her stunning vocals, old-timey banjo playing and her harmonies with the band Girls From Mars. Blood worked closely with Seeger for over a year as the editor of his autobiography Where Have All the Flowers Gone: A Singalong Memoir.
