

Religious Education Networking Session

*Tuesday, July 7, 1:30pm
Forsyth, Room 214*

Image credit: Mike Goren

Connect with other Friends who are active in First Day School and Quaker Religious Education.

Share resources and ideas, and learn about the Activity Pages, a new collection of activities and coloring pages for children. Activity Pages is centered on the themes of worship, testimonies, and welcoming children and their families into the life of our meetings.

Discover more Religious Education resources from FGC: <http://bit.ly/religiousedfgc15>

Sparkling Still: A Toolbox for your First Day School

Tuesday, July 7, 7:00pm

Blue Ridge Multipurpose Room D

Sparkling Still is a teacher resource and curriculum using readily-available literature for children ages 3 to 8 years old.

Written with new First Day School teachers in mind, Sparkling Still makes it easy and rewarding to create lessons that share the Quaker spiritual journey with young Friends.

We will discuss the manuscript and different teaching techniques, and create activity plans together using provided books.

To learn more about Sparkling Still, visit
<http://bit.ly/sstillgath15>

Happy 10th Birthday Godly Play® / Faith & Play™ !

*Thursday, July 9, 1:30pm
Blue Ridge Multipurpose Room D*

Godly Play® and Faith & Play™ acknowledge that God is active in children's lives long before they begin religious education.

Help us celebrate the 10th anniversary of this celebrated curriculum and its connections to story, play, and wonder!

To learn more about Godly Play® and Faith & Play™, visit <http://bit.ly/fandpgath15>